 Housing Secretary Robert Jenrick said it was not for government to tell people exactly how to behave.
 "Easter can be the new Christmas for some people," he said. The leaders of Scotland and Wales, which set their own often-stricter rules, urged people to show restraint. REUTERS production complex in Leavesden, northwest of London. The Sun reported. The tabloid said that the actor wears a mask on the set and has been personally enforcing COVID-19 rules, an effort to prevent further delays in shooting. In the leaked clip, Cruise told the crew that the production was the "gold standard" for Hollywood and that he had been speaking with studios, producers and insurance companies who were all "looking at us and using us to make their movies." NYT
