

Conservation and Cultivation of Medicinal Plants in Gujarat

M.C. Joshi*

The paper enumerates and discusses the utilisation of medicinal plants grown in certain areas of Gujarat. Due to our limited forest areas, land and knowledge, the only solution seems to be that our attention must be given in conservation and cultivation of the medicinal plants at least for those which are less available and are often used in indigenous pharmacies.

*Survey Officer,
Regional Research Institute (Ay.),
Taj Manjil, Sadar Bagh,
Junagarh-362001 (Gujarat)